

Continuing Language Acquisition over the summer

 Remember, the most effective way to acquire a language is by READING AND LISTENING to language that you can understand

Reading

Read comprehensible stories in Spanish

- “E-course” from FluencyMatters.com (Novel w/ audio, $6 each)
- RevistaLiteral.com – stories submitted by students
- Spanish section at your local library
- Books from Amazon

Social Media

Find people from the target language to follow:

- Music artists
- Celebrities, Actors, Sports teams/players
- Accounts that post memes
- Find people/accounts related to your own hobbies, interests

Videos/TV

Find people from the target language to follow:

- “Extr@ en español” series for language students
- BBC series “Mi vida loca”
- Series on Netflix
- Watch your favorite show w/ Spanish subtitles or Spanish audio
- Vlogs/Tutorials on YouTube

Music

- Listen to a whole album on repeat
- Read the lyrics, look up unknown words
- Create a playlist of your favorite music
- SeñorWoolly.com

Websites/Apps

*Quizlet

*Duolingo

*Search for Spanish Exercises”

Get social

- Find a pen pal or language buddy
- Find someone who wants to learn English, write to each other in your own language.
- Change the language of your phone settings

Get Cultural

- Read a non-fiction book with characters from the target culture
- Find a restaurant from the target culture
- Read the national newspaper from the target culture

Created by SpanishPlans.org search "Summer Acquisition" on our blog

source:

<https://spanishplans.org/2017/05/08/summer-acquisition/>